       Reimbursement for Victims of Violent Crimes

I. POLICY

A. The Stockton Police Department will notify all persons within their jurisdiction who sustain injury, or the dependent of a person killed as a direct result of a crime, as to their rights for reimbursement by the State of California. This will usually be done by explaining the information on the Crime Victims’ Rights and Options card (PD 1630).

B. It is mandatory that investigating or follow-up officers notify “victims” of crimes, or their families, of the possibility of reimbursement by the State for out-of-pocket expenses. This can be accomplished either verbally or by providing them with a Crime Victims’ Rights and Options card (PD 1630). All victims or their families will be referred to the Victim/Witness Program, 222 E. Weber Ave., for further assistance.

II. LAW
